Title: Journal Entry

Author: Lord Zyrn

The time of the Reckoning draws near. The powers of this place envigorate
me... give me
strength.
Zephyr and the Staff
shall both be mine.
Elindor's rune indeed
led to his study, as I had predicted.
And that which I have claimed as my own
shall only help in my quest.
The Reckoning is near, and in time all
will know the power
of Zyrn.
The Ice and Snow are mastered. Today, I shall continue the studies of pyrokinetic
forces in a place most suitable to do so.
It should be noted that there are signs that indicate Shame may be home to new forces
soon. The water has been stirring with movement, and though I have not seen
anything rise from it yet... I have to wonder what lies beneath, and whether it can be controlled to my will.
